OUTLINES.

William J. Conners, chairman of the New York Democratic State Committee, in a statement issued last night expressed himself as thoroughly confident that Bryan's plurality will be more than 40,000 and Chanler's not less than 100,000 in that State——General Oates calls at the White House and reports to the President the progress made in marking the graves of Confederate soldiers who died in Federal prisons, under the act of Congress providing therefor——Two servants in the family of a minister in Oklahoma City die of poison supposed to have been intended by some one in Lynchburg for the minister——The schooner Henry Weller, 27 days out from Jacksonville to New York, and supposed to be lost, has been spoken——Bryan made a number of speeches in New York towns yesterday——Over $40,000 in contributions were received at Democratic headquarters on Tuesday——In the powder trust investigation an agent of the Dupont Company testifies as to his breaking up the Chattanooga Company by underselling it on instructions from his employers——Kern made a number of speeches in Indiana yesterday——Alfred H. Curtis tells the court how he tried to prevent Morse from wrecking the Bank of North America——Taft and Hughes spoke in Madison Square Garden last night——Mrs. W. E. Torrence was shot and killed by a negro boy at Pooler, 10 miles from Savannah, Ga., yesterday. A mob was formed and a lynching was only prevented by the officers carrying the negro to Savannah——Resulting from suffragette disturbances the strangers and ladies' galleries in the House of Commons, in London, has been ordered temporarily closed——New York markets: Money on call steady at 1 to 1 1-2, ruling rate 1 1-2, closing bid 1 1-4, offered at 1 1-4. Cotton quiet, 5 points advance, middling uplands 9.45, middling gulf 9.70. Flour quiet and steady. Wheat easy, No. 2 red 1.09 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2, 77 1-4 elevator. Oats steady, mixed 52 to 52 1-2. Rosin steady. Turpentine easy at 40.

Thank goodness it is less than a week off.

If you can't vote you can holler for the Democratic candidate.

The Taft smile will be a thing somewhat of the past after next Tuesday.

Every Democrat should make a point of going to the polls on next Tuesday.

Don't say next Tuesday evening that you had been too busy to go to the polls.

Marion Butler will find out after a while in what estimation he is held by the people of his own State.

How flat some folks will feel on the day after the election when they are called on to pay their election bets.

This State is not at all in doubt, but every Democrat should vote in order to make the party's majority as great as possible.

As Captain Haine killed Annis in cold blood, of course, there is nothing for him to do but to plead temporary insanity.

If you have not registered you have no one but yourself to blame and you should not put it on the Democratic party. You had plenty of warning.

The public is impatient to know what Senator Foraker will have to say about some of the leading Republicans as soon as the election is over.

Hearst's chief desire seems to be to defeat the Democratic party in the State of New York. That is apparently the height of his ambition.

We wonder if Hisgen and the half dozen other candidates for President really think they are running in earnest.

It will soon be time for Senator Foraker to have his inning. He has kept well to his promise to keep his mouth shut until after the election.

We would like to see the Democrats win in this State with a whoop. Therefore every voter in the party must be sure to go to the polls on election day and plunk the full ticket.

That is a good idea—our Government buying the Sphinx and setting it up in Washington—if Roosevelt is to be candidate for President in 1912 or 1916.

We want to see the Democratic majority in this State bigger than that which Glenn got four years ago. To make it so all the Democrats must go to the polls and do their duty on election day.

That is pretty tough on Marion Butler that the Republicans of Mecklenburg should notify him that he is not wanted to make a speech in that county after having been requested to do so.

THE DAY IN RALEIGH

Negro Woman Recovers Horse and Buggy Stolen in Henderson Previously.

SUPREME COURT OPINIONS

Interesting Questions Involving Railroad Right of Way—Gain of Two Million in Bank Resources. Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 28.—A negro widow arrived here today from Henderson looking for a horse and buggy that were stolen from her by Dan Lee, colored. It developed that the thief brought the horse and buggy here and sold the horse to Jno. Griffin for $30.

Griffin became suspicious and sold the animal to B. W. Keith, who is left to the fate of recovering only the reward of $10 offered by the owner. The thief also sold the buggy and harness for mere pittances before he "skipped out."

Because he fell into a street excavation at night about which there was no danger light and was seriously injured, O. C. Green is seeking $5,000 damages from the city of Raleigh. The trial began today in Wake Superior Court before Judge Walter Neal.

The new question of whether or not the original grantor of a right of way for a specific railroad is entitled to additional compensation for that right of way when the holders of the title use the land in question for other roads acquired by lease or otherwise, is involved in a suit just argued in the North Carolina Supreme Court. The suit is McCullock vs. North Carolina Railroad Co., (now a part of the Southern system) and the right of way was granted to the North Carolina Railroad Co., years ago and is now used by the Southern as lessees of the North Carolina, Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley and other roads entering Greensboro, in getting access to the Union Depot. A motion is pending to remove the suit to the Federal Court and this is the question to be passed on by the Supreme Court at this time, the motion being by the defendant railroad company.

The Supreme Court handed down opinions as follows this afternoon; Fanning vs. White, from Craven, no error; Bank vs. Fountain, from Nash, new trial; Jones vs. Railroad from Craven, error; Wilson vs. Fisher, from Pender, error; State vs. Dixon, from Sampson, affirmed; McKoy vs. Lumber Co., from Pender, affirmed; Sumrell vs. Salt Co., from Lenoir, affirmed; Dortch vs. Railroad, from Wayne, affirmed; Springs Co. vs. Buggy Co., from Wayne, affirmed; State vs. Khoury, from Cumberland, affirmed; Oldham vs. Rieger, from Brunswick, affirmed; Pate vs. Steamboat Co., from Cumberland, affirmed; Porter vs. Railroad, from Cumberland, reversed; State vs. Allen, from Union, no error; State vs. Dobbins, from Richmond, no error; Gulledge vs. Railway, from Anson, petition to rehear dismissed; Underwood vs. Pender, from Guilford, dismissed under Rule 17; Brady vs. Wilson, from Durham, dismissed under Rule 17.

A gain of more than two million dollars in three months in the resources of the State, private and savings banks in North Carolina is shown by the summary of the condition of banks just issued from the office of the North Carolina Corporation Commission here, the gain being in comparison with the total resources as shown by the last previous summary three months ago. The total resources shown by the report just issued is $46,810,201. The total deposits, time, subject to check and in certificates is $30,991,064.

ONCE FOES—NOW FRIENDS!

Rev. J. A. Smith to Address New York Veterans at Great Reunion.

The Utica (N. Y.) Globe of last Saturday is a special number in honor of the forthcoming reunion of the Union veterans of Oneida county at which time Rev. James A. Smith of this city, will be the guest of the four Grand Army Posts of that city and will address the old soldiers on the Battle of Fort Fisher. The Globe prints excellent half-tone pictures of Rev. Mr. Smith, Sergt' Benj. F. Seeley, to whom he surrendered at the "bloody gate" during that memorable conflict; Gen. N. M. Curtis, and a birdseye view of the great naval bombardment of the post in which so many brave North Carolinians fell in battle. Mr. Smith will speak on this historic fight on Nov. 13th, at the Thorne Memorial Chapel auditorium, in Utica, and on the Sunday evening following in the First Presbyterian Church of Utica, at the request of the pastor, will speak on "Some of the Trials of the South, During and After the War." Mr. Smith is looking forward to his trip and reunion with the Northern veterans with much pleasure and it is unnecessary to say that the cause of the South in his hands will be well taken care of.

PRETTY EVENING WEDDING

A quiet but an altogether lovely home wedding was celebrated at six o'clock yesterday evening at the pretty residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jams H. Chadbourn, at the northeast corner of Front and Nun streets, when their accomplished daughter, Miss Frances King Chadbourn, became the attractive bride of Dr. Jasper W. Stanly, a leading young dental surgeon of Wilmington, in an impressive service spoken by the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Only members of the family and a few very intimate friends of the young people witnessed the pretty ceremony which was in tableaux and solemnized at an improvised altar formed in the midst of a perfect bower of plants and flowers and beneath garlands which were caught up at the chandelier from the ceiling in the centre of the room. The decorations were by Rehder and were artistic and in exceeding good taste. The music as the guests were assembling and the wedding marches were rendered with pleasing effect by Hollowbush's Academy Orchestra, all the arrangements having been carried out with delightful precision.

The bride's only attendant was her niece, pretty little Miss Blanche Chadbourn Bolles, as maid of honor and the groom's only attendants were Mr. Swift M. Boatwright as best man and Mr. Graham Kenan as groomsman. The exquisite white chiffon gown of the bride was trimmed with point lace to match the Venetian Rose point lace bridal veil, an heirloom in the family and one worn by many of its brides through four generations. The little maid of honor was lovely in a pretty costume of white lace over pink silk and she held daintily in her hand a basket of pink roses and maiden hair ferns. The male attendants wore the conventional evening dress with boutonnieres of white carnations.

The marriage scene was one of rare beauty and loveliness and when it gave way to one of less formality in an elegant reception that followed the young people were showered with the happiest felicitations of those assembled. The reception continued for only a short time during which dainty refreshments were served by half a score of pretty little girls, members of the Sunday School class of the bride, and after which Dr. and Mrs. Stanly, accompanied by members of the bridal party, took carriages for the union depot, whence they took their departure on the 7 o'clock northbound Atlantic Coast Line train for a wedding tour of some weeks during which they will visit many places of interest in the North. Returning, they will be at home in this city where they have a host of friends.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Jas. H. Chadbourn, one of Wilmington's most public spirited and enterprising citizens and is a young woman much loved and admired wherever she is known. The groom is a son of the late W. J. Stanly, Esq., who was a prominent lawyer in his day of the Columbus county bar. For the past several years he has practiced his profession in this city and has drawn to himself many warm friends by his strong character and many traits of good fellowship. Both the bride and groom will receive a most cordial welcome upon their return to the city.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Lucy Stanly, of Whiteville, mother of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Clark, and Mr. Arthur Chadbourn, relatives, of Chadbourn, N. C.

CAPT. E. A. GRISSOM DEAD

Well Known Cape Fear Pilot Passes Over Bar For Another Shore.

Many friends in Wilmington learned yesterday with great sorrow of the death of Captain E. A. Grissom, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed pilots of the Cape Fear, which occurred at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home at Southport after a lingering illness following an operation for a throat affection. Captain Grissom was born at Federal Point, this county, and was a son of the late Captain William Grissom, also a well known Cape Fear pilot in his day and a leading citizens of the lower part of the county. Captain E. A. Grissom was in the 69th year of his age when he passed away yesterday and for nearly 50 years had been a navigator of Cape Fear waters, having for this long period, even before the channel was marked or straightened, piloted in and out of Wilmington and Southport thousands of craft with never an accident. He was accounted a thorough master of his profession and many there are who will mourn his loss. In his private life he was noble and generous in his nature and charitable to a fault, his influence in the community having been one of great good.

Captain Grissom is survived by his wife and two sisters of the immediate family, though there are many relatives in Wilmington and in Brunswick county, who have the sympathy of all in the bereavement which is theirs. The sisters surviving are Mrs. Warren Mintz, of Southport, and Mrs. H. K. Ruark, of this city. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

RE-ADVERTISE BONDS

AFTER DUE ADVERTISEMENT

The Board of Aldermen, in special session an hour and a half last night in the Mayor's office at the City Hall, after a full and free discussion of the matter in all its phases, decided in view of the recent action of the Board of Audit and Finance in turning down the former proposition, to re-advertise the proposed sale of the waterworks and sewerage bonds of the municipality in the amount of $400,000, both on a 4 1-2 and a 5 per cent. basis, then to effect a sale to the best advantage possible in order that both the water works and sewerage problems under municipal ownership may be taken up together.

Before any action was taken, Mr. W. E. Worth, president of the Wilmington Sewerage Company, appeared by permission before the Board and read a written proposition to sell the existing plant of his corporation here and to take city bonds in payment therefor, the value to be arrived at either by an expert accountant to examine thoroughly into the value of the plant as a going business or by a board of three disinterested appraisers to be appointed from without the State, the price fixed to be binding upon both parties. The proposition was placed on file for information, the Board's later action being based upon the opinion that in the event it should be deemed advisable to purchase the established sewerage plant, this could be effected upon a better basis with the ready cash.

There were present at the meeting Mayor Springer, Aldermen Rathjen, Karr, O'Brien, Wood, Ellis, French, Bolles, City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler, City Attorney Bellamy and Mr. J. B. Works, a representative of Seasongood & Mayer, who has been in the city looking after the Wilmington issue for some days. The Mayor stated the object of the meeting to be that of considering a sale of the bonds in view of the disapproval of the former action of the Aldermen by the Board of Audit and Finance. He adverted, however, to the presence of Mr. Worth and with the Board's permission, Mr. Worth read his proposition, which was entirely conciliatory in its nature and bearing every stamp of the utmost good faith. It was plain to be seen, however, that the Board was not ready for action upon the subject and the proposition was filed for future reefrence.

Taking up the bond issue matter, Chairman Bolles, of the Finance Committee, stated that after consultation the committee would prefer that the members of the Board take up the question individually and express their opinions rather than for the question to be taken up on any recommendation from them.

Mr. Wood's idea was to advertise the entire issue of $500,000 rather than only the immediate needs. He could not see how the Commission who would have the handling of the money could go ahead with any definite scheme as to the acquiring of water and sewerage plants unless they knew the means were at hand. He favored advertising both 4 1-2 and 5 per cent. bonds and believed that after the election the securities would command a good price on either basis.

Mr. French concurred in the opinion of Mr. Wood, giving his reasons therefor and stating that such had been his position all along. He thought the whole issue could be sold with delivery of say $200,000 at once and the remainder in amounts as needed by the Commission. He also favored offering a part of the issue to local investors in denominations as might be required. He spoke at length to show why this would inspire a greater public spirit and thought it would materially strengthen the position of the bonds in the open market.

Being asked his opinion, Mr. Worth stated that he favored offering some of the securities to local investors and cited the fact that there is now on deposit in the savings banks of the city about three million dollars that might well be invested in these bonds.

Mr. Karr concurred in Mr. Wood's suggestion and favored the idea of giving local investors a chance if they desired the securities.

Mr. Rathjen favored advertising the whole issue, if necessary, and said he did not object to placing a reasonable amount of them on sale to local people.

Mr. O'Brien agreed that the whole issue should be advertised in order to carry both projects through at once, but he was still of the opinion that the previous sales were good and that the Board had done no wrong. It was merely a matter of legal technicality. He did not think, however, that local investors would be much interested in a proposition that would tie up their money for 30 or 40 years. However, he had no objection to giving every-

NORTH CAROLINA SYNOD

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., Oct. 28.—The North Carolina Synod resumed its work this morning. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. P. Robertson and assignments of committees were made. Following are the chairmen: Devotional, Rev. J. N. H. Summerell; special orders, Rev. C. H. Richards; bills and overtures, Rev. J. M. Rose; judicial, Rev. H. G. Hill; minutes of General Assembly, Rev. T. W. Lingle; Union Theological Seminary, Rev. P. R. Law; report of regents of orphan's home, Rev. A. D. McClure; systematic benevoluence, Rev. D. McIver; statistical reports of Presbyteries, Rev. R. C. Anderson; auditing committee, Elder W. H. Belk; records of Synod, Rev. A. A. McGeachy; records of Presbyteries, Concord, Rev. R. T. Liston; Orange, Rev. W. M. Walsh; Fayetteville, Rev. T. H. Spence; Wilmington, Rev. H. B. Seabright; Mecklenburg, Rev. J. S. Wood; Albermale, Rev. M. B. Clauchlane; Asheville, Rev. G. B. Thompson; Kings Mountain, Rev. J. M. Plowden.

Professor. J. H. Price, a member of the faculty of the Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, presented the needs of the institution and his report was referred to the committee. Communion services were held Revs. Rose and McGeachy presiding. Memorials to the late Revs. L. C. Johnson, J. Henderson and W. F. Thom were read and referred to the committee on Necrology. The afternoon was devoted to committee meetings. The evening session was devoted to missions. Dr. Morris presented the Home Mission subject in strong and impassioned appeal. He told of the lack of laborers and the need of funds. He showed how the population is gaining ground on evangelistic efforts and said that there must be more active interest in Home Missions to make the work effective at all. He illustrated his address by means of a chart.

The Foreign Missionary department was represented by the secretary, Dr. Reavis, of Atlanta. He also spoke of the great need of missionaries in the field. He stated that at some stations there was only one missionary to 25,000 people. The work is suffering greatly on account of this lack and he pleaded earnestly that the ministers go back to their charges with the missionary zeal and strive to give young men and women a desire to go to foreign lands to carry the gospel. He was optimistic about the work as a whole and made it appear as the church's great opportunity for gospel work.

A spirited discussion arose at the end of the session over the consolidation of the three church papers, Central Presbyterian, Presbyterian Standard and Southern Presbyterian. The matter was advocated by Dr. P. R. Law, of the Standard, and Dr. Wilson, of the Central, and was vigirously opposed by Rev. Mr. Wilson, a stockholder in the Standard. No agreement was made and the matter was left to committee.

LUMBER TRADE IMPROVING

Conditions Encouraging — Operations of Hammer Lumber Co. Here

Lumbermen feel confident that the tide of low prices has turned and that conditions of the lumber trade will improve rapidly during the Winter. The Hammer Lumber Company, of this city and Philadelphia, has purchased over five million feet of lumber in the past two days for vessel shipment from this port and have leased another wharf to facilitate the handling of same. The several plants of this company are all running full blast and shipments are going forward rapidly. They are now loading the schooner John H. May at their dock across the river and the schooner Wm. Thomas Moore will leave tonight in tow of the company's tug Fawn to load at Little River. Both cargoes are consigned to F. D. Langstroth & Co., of New York.

Foot Injured in Switch.

Mr. Herbert B. Mason, No. 216 North Eighth street, who recently took a position as switchman for the Coast Line at Florence, S. C., was painfully injured last Monday night when his foot was caught in the frog of a switch and he was released only after it had been badly mashed. He was brought to his home in this city and is being attended by Dr. D. W. Bulluck. His friends hope for him an early recovery.

CUSTOM HOUSE SITE

Water Street Location and Public Grounds May Have to be Abandoned.

AGENT NOW IN WASHINGTON

It was learned yesterday that since the return of Mr. G. D. Ellsworth, the agent of the United States Treasury Department, to Washington, that there is a strong possibility that the government will have to abandon its purpose announced a few days ago, of buying the entire west end of the block on Water street, between Market and Princess, as a site for the new Custom House to be erected in this city.

The trouble, it is stated, is that the government finds it difficult to acquire the property at either corner of the street at a price that is regarded as equitable. While the government, of course, has recourse to condemnation proceedings to acquire the property, it is stated by one high in authority that condemnation proceedings are never resorted to, however, by the government until all other means have been exhausted in securing other eligible sites. The fact that the failure of the government to acquire the property on Water street means virtually the abandonment of the cherished project of Mr. Keith and others to have in connection with the magnificent new building spacious grounds, elegantly fitted up and used as a public park, makes this matter one of vital concern to the public and one which the public can ill afford to see pass without notice. The plans of the government in the event it is able to acquire this property on the wharf have been announced and it is to be hoped that the citizens of Wilmington will use every effort to prevent a change of the plans. Collector Keith, himself a member of the Chamber of Commerce committee to co-operate with the government in securing an eligible site, is strongly committed to the idea of the wharf site immediately in front of the Revenue Cutter wharf and with its possibilities for grounds, and he is much disappointed at the turn affairs have now taken. Under the caption "A Great Opportunity For the City in the Balance," he has written the following for the Star, which will be read with interest:

"After working continuously for years for a new Custom building that would fill a long felt want as well as a great advantage for the city besides making it possible for the city to have a park by which the poor as well as all others could have the benefit of a park with its fine breeze on the river front with often fine music from the band of the Seminole that moors in front of where the Committee recommended the new Custom House to be placed, i.e., to purchase all of the land from adjoining the present government property on Princess street to Market street, running back as far as Wright's Alley and making a macadamized street of Wright's Alley from Princess to Market streets. Then put the building in the center and have a public park on both sides of the building for the benefit of the poor mothers and children who are not able to spend their evenings at the Beach. This is the place and it was so very striking to the Site Agent of the government, Mr. Ellsworth, who was here last week that he fell in line and promised to so recommend, but alas it looks as if we will lose this long cherished vision for the simple reason, as the government agent says, it seems that some of the property owners, since finding out that the government would buy, wants more for their property than it is worth, judging from the tax valuation and the dilapidated buildings thereon, and as the government will not pay more than property is reasonably worth, it may cause us to lose the park at least. But if we could get this property at something like its worth and with the city's co-operation in keeping the park, the government will no doubt turn it over to be used publicly.

"B. F. KEITH."

Rev. Mr. Smoot's Fine Address.

The Fayetteville Observer of Tuesday afternoon in speaking of the address delivered by Rev. Thomas A. Smoot, of this city, in connection with the Methodist centennial exercises says: "Hay Street Church's beautiful new edifice was crowded last night to hear Rev. T. A. Smoot, one of the most beloved of the long list of former distinguished pastors, deliver an address on "One Hundred Years of Methodism in Fayetteville." For an hour Mr. Smoot charmed his hearers with the delivery of one of the best addresses ever heard in a church in Fayetteville. We will not attempt to give a synopsis of this address, which we are glad to learn will be published later in pamphlet form. Mr. Smoot is one of the ablest divines in the Methodist church, and though a young man already stands high in its counsels."

LET EVERY DEMOCRAT DO HIS DUTY.

As election day approaches, of course, the interest in the outcome of the contest increases. The present week is one of great excitement and high pressure energy on the part of the leaders of the two dominant parties. With the close of this week the campaign will end. It is true some speeches will be made on Monday and, of course, the work of party heelers will not cease until the polls are closed, but the real work of the campaign will close with this week, and in this week a great deal of work will be done, especially in those States which are classed as doubtful and in which each party is trying to secure the electoral vote. But the two dominant parties are striving for more than a bare majority of the electoral college. Each, wishing to win, wants to do so with a big popular vote—and rightly so. For this reason the leaders of the Democratic party are urging that those States which are strongly Democratic give as big a majority as possible in order that the popular vote for Bryan may be swelled to its utmost extent, and for the purpose of carrying out this idea we urge that every Democrat in this State go to the polls and vote the straight Democratic ticket. The party in this State is, of course, in no danger, Bryan will be sure to get North Carolina's vote. No one doubts that; but what we want is for the Democratic electoral ticket to get as big a vote as possible in order to help swell the popular vote of Bryan throughout the whole country—to show that he is the choice of a large majority of the people of the Nation.

"THE AMERICAN GAME."

The Washington Post of recent date contains an editorial on the game of football to which it gives the above heading. We thought that baseball was distinctively the American game, but the Post places football in that place. Of that game it says:

"The football season has been ushered in auspiciously. The college hero, in full regalia of stuffed mole skins, striped jersey, and bandaged features, stands again upon his pedestal, hugging a grimy pigskin oval to his breast and accepting as his right the worship of a multitude. There seems to be no diminution in the number of his admirers.

"Despite the agitation against its boisterousness and its complete prohibition in some of the universities, football does not appear to have lost ground. It's popularity cannot be said to be growing, because there is little left for it to conquer. On last Saturday afternoon there were, in nearly every village, hamlet, town, and city of the United States where the weather would permit 22 powerful, alert, and high-spirited young men fighting with every ounce of nerve and muscular force in their bodies to drive a muddy leather ball across a line of whitewash. Possibly a million people screamed themselves hoarse in joy, encouragement, or defiance as they watched the fighters and the fights. For no football contest is worthy the name if it be not a fight from beginning to end; that it is good natured and friendly does not alter the fact.

"It is just because it is a fight calling for courage, action, speed, stamina and persistence, that football makes such a strong popular appeal. The average American dearly loves a fight. A little danger adds to his zest in it whether he be participant or spectator."

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT.

One of the causes of the great increase of expense of the federal Government is the great many commissions appointed to investigate matters, some of importance and others of no interest whatever to the public. Of this matter of increase of the Government expense the Journal of Commerce says:

"One item of Federal expense that seems to be attracting some attention in Washington during the general revision of estimates that is now in progress is that which covers the cost of the various commissions appointed during the past few years. There are more than a dozen of these bodies in existence and in one way and another the total outlay involved by them is annually raised to an exceedingly high figure. Some of the commissions are now firmly established as parts of the governmental mechanicsm, others are confessedly temporary, though showing no signs of terminating their labors, and still others will supposedly pass out of being as soon as the exigency which called them into operation has passed. What is apparent, however, is that the habit of doing work through such organizations, nearly unknown a few years ago, is growing, and as some of those now in existence pass away others will be likely to take their place. That is why the cost of this method of administration is now under scrutiny."

With our two new engines Wilmington has, beyond doubt, the finest fire department in the State. We doubt if any city in the South has a finer. This fact is due greatly to the efficient fire committee of the city's Board of Aldermen, especially its energetic chairman.

It is said there is a scarcity of small bills in the National treasury. Of course. They have been sent to Ohio and Indiana and the other doubtful States where they are needed to help carry the Republican ticket.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—"The trust are in the hands of the Almighty", says Senator Dolliver. It would be extremely interesting to know how and when the Senator got his information.—Indianapolis News. Possibly the Senator was only trying to clear the reputation of certain business combinations that in ante-election days are pictured as creatures of the devil.—New York Herald.

—It is suggested in our London financial cable that none of the great Powers desires war or is prepared for it, a suggestion corroborated by the fact that most of them are preparing to float new loans. That financial and commercial circles abroad and here expect a pacific adjustment of the Balkan differences is indicated not only by the bourses, but also by the markets for breadstuffs and cotton.—New York Herald.

—The Cuban election is of vast importance to the United States government, but what is important about it is not that this candidate shall win or that candidate shall be defeated but that the election shall be conducted in a lawful, orderly and straightforward manner and shall represent in its result the will of the majority of the Cuban people. It would be folly greater than a crime to do anything which would impair its integrity and validity, and our government is not committing any such follies.—New York Tribune.

—Mounted farmers have been searching the countryside near Stanwick, N. J., for a white man who attacked Catherine Dudley, 19 years old, daughter of Robert Dudley, of Bortons Landing road, this morning while she was walking home, after having alighted from a trolley car at Stanwick. With a hatpin as her weapon, the girl fought off her assailant. When she reached home she fainted, and is now in a serious condition. Shortly after Miss Dudley had left the trolley car she noticed a white man, who had been a passenger, following her. She let him pass, but had not gone for before the stranger sprang from the woods. She seized her hatpin and began a series of stabs in the man's body, and finally he was forced to relax his hold. After that she ran away from him.—Philadelphia North American.

—Bacon, whose election as treasurer and president of Gray's Inn has just been recalled by a grand tercentennial celebration in London, next to Shakespeare, who was three years his junior, was the greatest intellectual product of the Elizabethan age. Pope called him "the wisest, brightest, meanest of mankind," which is not altogether true, for as Morley has added, he never said consciously to himself "evil, be thou my good," and until time ceases to be recorded he will be considered by future historians, as by those of the past, as one of the greatest men the world has produced. It is but charitable to bury with man's bones all memory of the evil which he may have done, which perhaps accounts for the hero worship of departed spirits that were illustrious in their tenements of clay. But the character of Bacon stands forth as an example of mental strength combined with moral weakness, which has no equal. —Washington Post.

—The proposal of one of the German steamship lines that the companies forming the North Atlantic Conference enter into an agreement to restrain competition in providing luxurious floating palaces for first-class passengers raises the question how far it might be possible to monopolize any part of the business of transportation on the ocean. A rivalry has been going on for some time between certain German and English lines in building costly steamships of huge bulk and high speed, with all the appointments of palatial hotels, and apparently there is beginning to be alarm lest this be overdone and result in financial trouble for some of the companies. There must be a limit to the luxury and speed which a sufficient number of people are able and willing to pay for, even on the North Atlantic route between the United States and Europe; and when that limit is passed the enormous expense of maintaining these colossal "ocean greyhounds" will begin to eat up the profits of the rest of the fleets. The proposal coming from a leading German company, indicates an apprehension that in the struggle for supremacy its vessels would not be among the survivors.—Journal of Commerce.

—Some writer commenting on the national presidential campaign has remarked upon the general apathy of the public on the subject, little real enthusiasm and excitement being manifested by the great body of the people, although the most noisy crimination and recrimination have been indulged in by leaders and prominent politicians, and the most positive charges of flagrant bribery and corruption have been handled from one to another on both sides. There is little reason to doubt that many of these charges are true and susceptible of proof, and they are of a nature that would once have been regarded as most serious reflections upon personal honor and integrity, and in some cases would have been resented with bloodshed, but apparently that time has passed. This state of affairs has not resulted from any special improvement in human morals, or any remarkable growth of distaste to bloody encounters. These disturbances are so nearly of every-day occurrence that nobody would be so rash as to declare that a condition of millennial peace and piety had come upon modern political and social activities. The reason why the parties accused of being the bribed agents and servants of the powerful trusts and financial and industrial corporations are passive or indifferent seems to be that there is no social ban against acquiring wealth in any manner, provided it be not by positive criminal means. To get wealth seems to be the most important business in the world, and apparently the easiest way to get it is to form some association with and perform some important service for a great trust monopoly. Therefore no special objection is urged to such methods. Human honor seems to be regarded pretty much at Falstaff's estimate of it, and any act which brings in pelf without leading up to the door of a felon's cell is to be excused, if not justified, and so we go through the charges of political corruption and bribery as they are handed out in the political campaign.—New Orleans Picayune.

BUTLER NOT WELCOME

Ex-Senator is Wired by Acting Chairman Not to Come to Charlotte.

(Charlotte Observer.)

There was no little suppressed excitement in the local Republican camp last night when the news became noised abroad that the engagement of ex-Senator Marion Butler to speak here Saturday night—an engagement solicited by members of the Mecklenburg organization—had been canceled by a telegram to Butler from Mr. E. M. Bell, who is acting chairman of the county executive committee in the absence from the city of Mr. Jake F. Newell, the chairman elected by the recent convention. As stated in The Observer some days ago letters were written to Mr. Butler, under the instruction, it is said, of Chairman Newell, endeavoring to secure him as one of the speakers to wind up the campaign here. Saturday he wired from the Dakotas his acceptance of the invitation tendered and stated that he would be here Saturday night. Mr. Bell held a long distance conversation with Judge Adams, unavailing at Greensboro yesterday afternoon.

An effort was made by The Observer to reach Acting Chairman Bell by telephone last night for a statement from him, if he cared to make one, of the reasons for the cancellation of the engagement. A prominent Republican who was disappointed at the news said that he believed at least nine-tenths of the G. O. P. in the county wanted Butler to come. It is a well known fact that Mr. Butler is persona non grata to the element at present in control of the State Republican organization. The wise ones who are putting two and two together, of course, don't know, but they say that the element in power is afraid for Butler to get his hands on the situation in North Carolina, lest there be a turning of the tide which might sweep him into power again in the division of Federal patronage—a thing to conjure with.

Oct 20-1908

Fellow Citizens:

The campaign is drawing to a close; the issues have been set forth in the platforms; the arguments of the candidates have been presented; and the verdict is about to be rendered. Every State in the Union shows Democratic gains, and there is no doubt of a Democratic victory if all who favor our policies vote and have their votes counted. I write to urge you to see to it that every Democratic vote in your precinct is polled early and counted. We desire a popular majority as well as a majority in the electoral college, and your vote is needed to offset a Republican vote somewhere else, even if not needed in your locality. Work! Vote! And then you can rejoice the more heartily in the victory.

Yours truly

—Newbern Sun: Mr. D. E. Ganaway, a young Hampton, Va., sportsman is spending a few days in the city with friends, and is giving them a few lessons on how to go into the deer arena and capture the most beautiful, high strung, swift footed animal of the forest. Yesterday he with a party of friends who took their guns and dogs, started out to chase some game. On reaching Brice's Creek, the crew got in readiness for the hunt. They had not gone far before a young 7 months' buck was seen in the distance. The dogs gave chase. One of the party fired on the fleet footed beast of the forest which made him run the faster. The Virginia sportsman, Mr. Gunaway, gave chase with the fleeing buck, and before they had ran many hundred yards the man sprinter overtook the dear and captured him alive. Now this young buck is alive in the yard of Mr. J. H. Weddell on Johnson street.

MR. GOMPERS ENDORSED

White House Resolution Overwhelmingly Defeated in Union Labor.

Washington, October 27. — Samuel Gompers and the position of oragnized labor in the present campaign were indorsed for the second time at a meeting of the Central Labor Union here last night.

The indorsement came after a debate lasting for more than two hours in which two sets of resolutions were introduced, and after the charges that one of the sets was framed under pressure from the White House.

It was charged the president's hand was seen in every line of a resolution presented by Delegate Templar, of the government printing office, which condemned the action of Mr. Gompers.

In Mr. Templar's resolution he condemned "the action of Mr. Gompers in mixing labor organizations in politics." Two hours after the resolution was introduced a vote was taken with a result of 77 against and three for the resolution.

Following the defeat of the resolution condemning Mr. Gompers, a resolution prepared by the American Federation of Labor, approving the action of its president, and similar to the one passed last February, was introduced and carried by a vote of 78 to 1 the one vote being cast by Mr. Templar, who introduced the previous resolution.

The resolution condemns the republican party.

WALL ST. SEER PICKS BRYAN.

Says He Has Correctly Forecasted Last Four Presidential Elections.

New York, Oct. 26.—E. E. Knott, who has obtained considerable reputation in Wall Street as a Presidential election prognosticator, is confident Bryan will receive at least 257 electoral votes, or 15 more than enough to elect.

"In 1892," said Mr. Knott, "I predicted a landslide to Cleveland early in the campaign. In 1896 I forecasted a close fight, with the result in favor of Mr. McKinley. In 1900 I predicted a landslide for McKinley from the start. In 1904 I figured out an overwhelming victory for Roosevelt from the nomination. This year I predict a close Bryan victory. The States I give Mr. Bryan are as follows:

"Arkansas, 11; Alabama, 9; Colorada, 5; Delaware, 3; Georgia 16; Idaho 3; Indiana 15; Kentucky 13; Louisiana 9; Maryland 8; Mississippi 10; Missouri 18; Montana 3; Nebraska 8; Nevada 3; North Carolina 12; North Dakota 4; Ohio 23; Oklahoma 7; Oregon 4; South Carolina 9; South Dakota 4; Tennessee 12; Texas 18; Utah 3; Virginia 12; Washington 5; West Virginia 7; Wyoming 3. Total 257.

—Charlotte Observer: Swain county court convened at Bryson City yesterday for a two weeks' term for the trial of both civil and criminal cases with Judge R. B. Peebles presiding. There are a large number of cases on the docket to be tried. One of the most important is that of W. M. Ritter Lumber Company against Montvale Lumber Company, which involves the title to about 30,000 acres of very valuable timber land lying in Swain county. Eminent counsel has been employed on both sides and a hard fight is expected.

Happiness From Troubles.

Being human, happily or unhappily, we cannot deny the comfort to be found in the reflection that misery never lacks the company it loves. We all have our troubles, and some of us derive much satisfaction from the contemplation of them. Indeed, there are those who are happy only when wretched, but these we believe to be as few in number as they are disagreeable in association. The vast majority of humans are normal and disposed, therefore, in conformity with natural law, to smile when the skies are clear and to grieve under the portent of clouds; hence the ease with which worry takes possession of the mind, colors the disposition and makes a cripple of effort. That causes abound we know and must admit, as we do almost unconsciously the certainty of death, but too little cognizance is taken of the fact that the effect of mere apprehension, which is all that worry really is, may be subjected to simple mental treatment and be overcome.—George Harvey in North American Review.

A Fast Record.

At a political convention held in Illinois the importance of nominating a popular man for a certain close district was thoroughly recognized. A speaker had just renominated a personal friend for the position and in an elaborate eulogy had presented in glowing terms his manifold merits, especially emphasizing his great services on the field of battle as well as in the pursuits of peace.

After he had finished a voice was heard in the rear of the room, "What we want is the man that will run the best."

In an instant the orator was again on his feet.

"If you think," he yelled, "that this convention can find anybody that can run better than the gentleman I have nominated, I point once more to his well known war record."—Lippincott's.

Danderine

GROWS HAIR and we can

PROVE IT!

A lady from Minnesota writes: "As a result of using Danderine, my hair is close to five feet in length."

Beautiful Hair at Small Cost

HAIR troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment; when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions.)

The natural thing to do in either case, is to feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Knowlton's Danderine has a most wonderful effect upon the hair glands and tissues of the scalp. It is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is similar to the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp.

It penetrates the pores quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One 25-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

INJURIES PROVED FATAL

After lingering for several days, Mr. Roy Register, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Register, of this city, died Tuesday night at 11 o'clock in New Orleans, as the result of a pistol shot wound which he recently sustained. The sad intelligence of his death was received by relatives yesterday morning, and his many Wilmington friends learned the unexpected news with great regret.

Mr. Register until he recently went West, had been a resident of this city for many years, having held a position with the Atlantic Coast Line and was a most estimable young man. Particulars regarding the unfortunate shooting affair, of which he was the victim, have been very meagre, and as yet nothing definite has been ascertained. Mr. W. H. Register, father of the deceased, went to New Orleans shortly after his son was shot and it was reported in this city that there was a chance for his recovery. The announcement of his death was a distressing surprise. Mr. Register was a member of the Boys' Brigade of this city, and the flag yesterday was at half-mast, as a tribute to the deceased.

Surviving him besides his parents are several other members of the immediate family in Wilmington. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

DEATH OF MISS STEPHENS.

Young Lady Died Yesterday After Short Illness—Funeral Today.

Following an acute illness of only a short time from congestion, Miss Lena R. Stephens, passed away early yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. N. Brewer, No. 315 Dawson street, where she had been residing for some time, and her death was learned by her many friends with infinite sadness. She had resided in Wilmington practically her entire life and was well and favorably known by a host of acquaintances, who held her in the highest esteem and extended the tenderest sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

She was 29 years of age and surviving her besides her father, Mr. J. P. Stephens, of East Wilmington, are one brother Mr. J. C. Stephens, and two sisters, Mrs. R. L. Everett and Mrs. C. N. Brewer, all residents of this city. Miss Stephens had been a devoted member of the Advent Christian church for several years and was an active Christian worker. The funeral will be conducted this morning at 10 o'clock from the Advent Christian church, by the pastor, Elder J. T. Johnson, assisted by Elder J. W. S. Harvey, and the remains will be laid to rest in Bellevue cemetery.

Roderick Cases Transferred.

A hearing of the charges against George Roderick, the notorious lawbreaker, who shot and seriously wounded Eugene Harris, a young white man, last Sunday morning and also committed an assault upon Officer Coleman with the same weapon, will be had before Justice Furlong, probably tomorrow, the case having been transferred from the Mayor's court for the preliminary trial. Since his arrest he has been held in the guard house at the City Hall awaiting the result of Harris' injuries, but was yesterday placed in the county jail. The transfer of the case to Justice Furlong was upon the Mayor's own volition.

Dr. Bolles said that he was disappointed that the Board of Audit and Finance did not concur in the former sale; that he believed that the sale was as good as could be secured. There seemed to be nothing to do but advertise again. However, he did not think local investors would be much interested in the bonds and explained the reasons therefor. The average local investor wanted something easily convertible. He had been in the bond business himself and had tested the local market time and time again. He also believed, that the selling to many purchasers would affect the price paid by the main buyer, as no bond house would care to buy an issue the market on which it could not control. Investors usually wanted all or none of a given issue. He also did not think that the proposition to issue them serially would result in their sale upon as advantageous terms as if all were placed on the market at once.

Mr. Ellis was glad to agree to the proposition to re-advertise and felt that the action of the Board of Audit and Finance was a vindication of his position in the first instance. He was delighted when he learned that the Board of Audit and Finance had declined to concur in the former action because he was convinced that the securities should be re-advertised to give everybody a chance.

Mr. Works, who was present, was given permission to address the Board with reference to bond sales in general from the point of view of the purchasers. From experience he did not think a sale of any part of the securities to local investors would prove a success and thought the city should place the bonds on the market in the most desirable shape. He also said that no bond house would give as much for the bonds delivered serially as it would if delivered at once or within a reasonable time as it was in the power of no one to forecast the condition of the market more than three or four weeks in the future.

There was some further discussion and upon motion of Mr. Ellis it was resolved to place $400,000 on the market after due advertisement for 30 days to run 40 years and to bear either 4 1-2 or 5 per cent., in such denominations as the purchaser might choose. All the details of the advertisement were left to the Finance Committee.

—In Justice Furlong's court yesterday Martha Howard, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was given a hearing and the evidence being insufficient to make a case the prosecuting witness, Ella Henry, was made to pay the costs of the action.

—The only cases of any consequence in the police court yesterday were those of Bina Brockington, colored, who was sent to the county farm to serve 30 days, for an affray and Mr. A. Rothschild, for operating an automobile without a light, who was released upon payment of the costs.

—Admirers of the beautiful will be interested in the announcement of Mr. Wm. B. Parker, No. 203 Princess street, who for two weeks will sell 30,000 bulbs, imported direct from Holland. They include hyacinths, tulips, narcissus, iris, crocus and scilla and they will be sold at greatly reduced prices. An assortment of 65 may be had for $1.

—The game of football yesterday afternoon at League Park between the Wilmington High School and Cape Fear Academy elevens for the benefit of the playgrounds movement was necessarily postponed on account of the rain. A large number of tickets have been sold for the event, the postponed date of which will be announced later.

—In regard to the collision of the launch and the steamer Whitlock in the river Wednesday afternoon, Captain W. D. Blizzard, master of the Whitlock, requests that the statement be made that he gave one blow of the whistle to pass to the starboard and that the launch went to port; also that the Whitlock was backing her engines at the time the collision came. Otherwise the accident might have been far more serious.

The Theatre

With their company of sixty well known and talented musical comedy folks, Little Chip and Mary Marble will appear at the Academy tomorrow night in an elaborate scenic production of the big New York success, "His Honor, the Mayor." Seats for the event will go on sale at Plummer's this morning.

Press reports of this season's big presentation of the noted musical comedy have been exceedingly flattering and the Raleigh News and Observer among other things says:

"It was past delight all the way through at the Academy of Music last night when "His Honor, the Mayor" was the attraction in which "Little Chip" and Mary Marble made every one happy, being assisted by a company that ranks among the very best that has ever been seen in Raleigh.

"Besides the big stars, there were other stars that shone just as brilliantly, while there were six bright and particular stars which glittered and danced and made everybody sit up and take notice, these being the Eight Shetlands, a pony ballet, which in various appearances captivated the audience with their symmetry and their artistic dancing.

Change of Programme.

Today will bring about the regular change of programme at the popular Crystal Palace, which this week has enjoyed rushing business. There will be an entire change of all acts, which will furnish the second bright and delightful bill of the present week. Grouscoup, the musical German comedian, will present a new act, Bashford will do different and stirring stunts at bag punching, the Graham Sisters, who are charming favorites already, will be seen in a new and fine dancing sketch, interspersed with songs, and Mme. Zanonettes, the violin virtuoso, will introduce something new. The latter act is one of the highest class acts ever presented in Wilmington and has been lavishly praised.

Today at the Bijou.

One of the famous vitagraph films will be offered at the Bijou today and tonight and the bill will be "Her Newsboy Friend." It is a love story presenting vividly all the wild passions of hate, jealousy, tender sympathy and those other emotions which hold and entrance the onlooker. The pictures are quick of action, easily intelligible and will with the gallant young lover, the heroine, the street urchin and last, but not least, the villain make up an altogether attractive bill at this popular amusement headquarters at small prices.

Owls Festival Postponed.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Wilmington Nest of the Order of Owls last night at their club rooms, 225 Princess street, at which Mr. William Judkins Hewitt, general agent of the John R. Smith Shows, was present, they decided to postpone the date of the Owl's Fall Festival until the week of November, 23rd, which is Thanksgiving week. Mr. Hewitt has been in the city for the past several days looking over the location of the Festival and completing arrangements.

IN MEMORIAM.

Frederick Kidder, of Kendal.

There were many sorrowing hearts, touched with tenderness, who read this morning the simple intimation of Fred Kidder's death, away from the home which he loved where his memory is held in grateful affection, for he was a man among men, endowed with the attributes of the noblest work of God.

A splendid example of physical development, he was also of the tenderest and most sympathetic nature, and, like our Great Exemplar, was often touched with the feeling of our infirmities; no one responded more quickly to a cry of distress, especially when it came from those whom he loved. How often, in the busiest hours of an active and honorable life, has he given himself wholly to the alleviation of affliction or bereavement, not grudgingly nor of necessity, but generously and willingly, out of the fullness of overflowing kindliness; and there are lonely hearts who treasure up, too sacred for expression, these memories of his gentle unselfish human tenderness.

A Harvard graduate, prominently identified for nearly a life time with the intelligent development of a great industry, he was regarded a leader in Cape Fear rice planting and a fine exponent of Cape Fear hospitality. Strictly just in all his business dealings, exacting but compassionate in his relations to his employes, he bore without reproach, in a reproachful age, the grand old name of Gentleman.

The one thing needful for the rounding of a noble life came with the great affliction which wore out his strong manhood. In his weariness and painfulness he turned at last to that source of all strength and consolation, which he had humbly imitated. During the many months of his long illness his mind often turned to the old plantation, which he longed to see again as he had seen it when he looked out upon the wide expanse and watched the white winged vessels sailing by, or when, after a busy day, he had sat far into the quiet night and gazed into the great arch above, resplendent with the tranquil glory of the stars.

Kendal and Lilliput will mourn for him, but, far away in the realms of everlasting peace, after life's fitful dream is over, he has heard the voice which said "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." A FRIEND.

VOTE IN CONVENTION.

Democratic County Chairman Furlong has received from State Chairman Eller some striking statistics to show why it is very necessary for New Hanover to cast her full vote this election if she is to be properly represented in nominating conventions in the future. Every county in the State is entitled to one vote in the State convention for every 150 votes cast for the Democratic candidate for Governor in the preceding election. In 1900 New Hanover gave Aycock a majority of 2,963 and was entitled to 20 votes in convention. In 1904 on account of general apathy only 1,284 votes were cast for Glenn and in consequence of this falling off, the county's representation in the State convention dropped to a puny 9. Its future influence in all conventions, district and State, will depend upon the vote this year for W. W. Kitchin. Democratc should read and ponder upon these figures.

MORSE AND CURTIS TRIAL

Alfred H. Curtis on the Witness Stand. Produces a Letter to Morse Protesting Against Latter's Action—Over-Drafts.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 28.—The apparent determination of Alfred H. Curtis to exonerate himself of all blame respecting the banking transactions for which he and Charles W. Morse are now undergoing trial in the United States District Court here became more defined today when under the prompting of his attorney Mr. Curtis produced a letter written by him under date of June 13, 1907 and addressed to Morse, in which he protested vigorously against the continuance of practices inaugurated by the latter, which, in Curtis' opinion, constituted a grave menace to the stability of the Bank of North America.

The incident of the overdraft of $210,000 by Mr. Morse was made the subject of searching questioning by the witness' attorney. Mr. Curtis related the coming of F. Augustus Heinze to him with a request for a loan of $126,000 and his refusal to grant the accommodation. Morse remonstrated with him, saying "unless we let them have the money they must go to the wall." Curtis stood firm, however, he said.

But to his amazement he testified a personal check of Charles W. Morse for $126,000, drawn to the order of Heinze, came through the next day. The check had been honored although at the time, the witness said, Morse, had a balance to his credit of only $3,100.

"I at once went to Mr. Morse," the witness said, "and told him that he must protect the bank and at once wipe out this overdraft. Mr. Morse sent out and got two boxes of securities and turned over their contents to me. I told him that the securities he offered were insufficient and he offered to give me an order on $1,000,000 of steamship bonds which he had on deposit in London. I accepted the offer and upon being given the order at once cabled to London to have the securities held, subject, to the Bank of North America's order."

Despite the efforts of Morse's attorneys to present Curtis in the light of a free agent who at all times was not under the control or Morse, the witness persisted in maintaining his contention that he was but the instrument of another will and purpose.

A WHITE STREAK OF DESTRUCTION

IS NOW ON EXHIBITION

For over three years there has been a monster tapeworm in the stomach of Norman L. Mintz, the ten-year-old son of Mr. F. L. Mints, an engineer at the Compress, living at 717 South Fourth street. It had checked the growth and development of this child; impaired his health and made his young life one of suffering and pain. Had this parasite been permitted to remain in his system his health would have soon been undermined beyond all hope of recovery, but, fortunately, his parents found a means of removing this human destroyer, after physicians had made three attempts and three failures, and the cause of the little fellow's sickness and pain, an enormous tapeworm, is now the occupant of a glass bottle, a white streak of pain and misery thirty feet in length, its hideous head, neck and body complete, but now harmless.

Norman Mintz suffered all the pains and disagreeable symptoms of a person with a tapeworm. His appetite was irregular and he was subject to fits of nausea. His sleep was restless and his nervous system had been madly shattered through the presence of this monster in his stomach. Three trials had been made at the removal of this worm, and on each occasion the parents had seen their son go through an experience almost as bad as the disease from which he suffered and all in vain, for the worm stubbornly resisted all efforts to expel it.

After the removal of the worm from his son this morning Mr. Mintz appeared before a Notary Public and made oath to the following facts in connection with the case:

Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 28, 1908.

"Our little boy, Norman Mintz is ten years old and has been a sufferer from a tapeworm for the last three years. There have been three efforts made by local physicians to remove this worm and every one failed. The boy was extremely nervous; subject to spells of weakness and dizziness, hot flushes and complained of great pain in his stomach. I read of the remarkable success of Dillingham's Plant Juice in removing tapeworms in other cases and became convinced that I ought to try it in my boy's case. The repeated failures of local physicians to remove this worm had discouraged me and the success that followed the Plant Juice treatment was a most agreeable surprise to me. At other times when efforts were made to remove this worm the boy was mercilessly starved, and the operation was almost as bad as the disease, but in a few hours after taking Plant Juice our son was running around, playful and bright, with the cause of all his suffering and ill health safely confined in a large glass bottle.

I am naturally pleased at the restoration of our boy to sound health and feel that I cannot do or say too much to show my appreciation to Col. Dillingham, Mr. Mills and the wonderfully effective Plant Juice remedy. Mrs. Mintz not only joins me in this sincere appreciation, but is overjoyed at the ease and lack of suffering occasioned by its removal."

Everything was in readiness for the opening performance of Col. Dillingham's free lecture and entertainment at the new location, Fourth street, between Church and Castle streets, but rain interfered and no performance was given. If weather conditions are more favorable tonight the entertainment will take place at the usual hour.

Good Season For Trout.

The fishermen have had splendid success during the past few days and the Wilmington market has been plentifully supplied with trout, as the result of several big catches. A record catch was made Monday morning by Messrs. W. E. Yopp and James Walton, who landed some 240 bunches in a few hours. They were caught about half mile off Wrightsville Beach.

ALL WRONG.

The Mistake Is Made by Many Wilmington Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

A Wilmington resident tells you how.

Mrs. M. W. Moore, 510 Princess St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I cannot say too much for Doan's Kidney Pills, as I never used a remedy that gave me such good results. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches which made it almost impossible for me to obtain a comfortable position. I was also caused much annoyance by the irregular action of the kidney secretions. When I read about Doan's Kidney Pills, I purchased a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and started taking them. They soon cured me and I have had no kidney trouble since. I have told several of my friends about Doan's Kidney P lls and will continue to recommend them whenever I have an opportunity."

MRS. J. W. CARMICHAEL DEAD.

End Cam Least Midnight in This City After Extended Illness.

Inexpressibly sad is the death of Mrs. Janie Northrop Carmichael, the devoted wife of Mr. J. Wallace Carmichael and only daughter of Capt. W. H. Northrop, which occurred last midnight after an extended illness during the latter part of which her condition had been critical. While for some hours preceding her death, the end had been expected almost at any moment, the announcement that Mrs. Carmichael had passed away was a great shock to the family and hundreds of friends who had inquired anxiously all night as to her condition. She was a woman of many lovable traits of character and her sweet disposition had made for her many friends and lasting ones in every circle in which she moved. At the time of her death she was in the 41st year of her age and is survived of the immediate family by her father, the deeply bereaved young husband and two children, Master George and little Miss May Carmichael, all of whom have the tenderest sympathy of the community in the great sorrow which has come into their lives. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

L'Arioso German Postponed.

On account of the extreme illness of Mrs. J. Wallace Carmichael and the recent death of Mr. Fred Kidder, the regular October german of L'Arioso German Club to have been last night in Masonic Temple ball room, was annulled.

Conference on Pellagra.

It is likely that several Wilmington physicians will leave on the early train today for Columbia, S. C., where they will attend this afternoon a conference of the profession to consider the new and deadly disease Pellagra of which so much has been said and written recently. The conference will begin at 2 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the South Carolina State Board of Health. It is likely that Senator B. R. Tillman will be present and make some remarks upon the new disease as he saw it in Italy and with which he is said to be afflicted personally. Among the number of interesting papers to be read is one by Dr. E. J. Wood, of this city, on "Some Problems in the Study of Its Etiology."

POLISH JEW RABBI

Incensed at a member of his congregation the law of the orthodox Jewish church as to slaughter certain fowls to be used as Kosher meat, thereby transcending his authority as the proper official for performing such offices in the church and incidentally robbing him of his fee, C. H. Zoglinsky, said to be a Polish Jew rabbi, is alleged to have violently assaulted S. H. Dwarsky, a member of his congregation, a few days ago. The trouble is alleged to have taken place on MacRae street and yesterday Dwarsky secured a warrant for the rabbi and he was haled to Justice Bornemann's court by Deputy Sheriff A. T. Piver. There were also cases growing out of the same trouble befor 'Squire W. McD. Evans and Justice Furlong, but after numerous conferences between the litigants and their attorneys, Messrs. Woodus Kellum and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., the cases were amicably settled and in a babel of voices the large crowd of foreigners attracted by the hearing ifet magistrates' row after an all-day airing of their religious customs and grievances, little of which was intelligible to the ordinary American.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Wadesboro Ansonian: A chrysanthemum measuring 10 inches in diameter and 30 inches in circumference is on exhibition at the Parsons Drug store. It was grown by Mrs. T J. Fetzer.

—Monroe Enquirer: Mr. Ellis B. Purser, who lives in New Salem township, says that in his neighborhood there are no colored people; that there is not a colored person living within seven miles of his home and that he has children going to school who had never seen a colored person.

—Statesville Landmark: Nine boys and ten dogs went into the Thompson thicket, near Hiddenite, Friday night on an oppossum hunt, but instead of what they were seeking they found and captured a polecat, and those who ventured too near the animal caught an odor on their clothes which was so unpleasant that a change was necessary.

—Salisbury Post: Capt. L. D. Parker has a pear tree on his lot that worked overtime this year. It bore a fine crop which was ripe August 1st. It bloomed again about this time and the second yield was ripe last week. To make altogether good the tree bloomed again last week but the blooms were destroyed by the heavy rains.

—Raleigh, Oct. 27.—The North Carolina Corporation Commission issues a summary of the condition of State, private and saving banks in this State at the close of business on a recent date that shows an increase of two million dollars in the resources of the banks, the total resources at this time being $46,810,201. The detail of the summary shows that deposits subject to check aggregate $23,717,464, the time deposits $4,288,662 and certificates of deposit $2,984,978.

—Wilson, Oct. 26.—This city is to be honored on the 12th, 13th and 14th of November next by a large body of educators from all sections of the State—the occasion being the assembling of teachers made up from the first, second and third and fourth grades of North Carolina's numerous graded schools. Raleigh, Goldsboro and Durham were anxious to have this body of the North Carolina Primary Teachers' Association in their midst, but through the invitation extended by Prof. Chas. L. Coon, of the Wilson graded schools—telling them of our beautiful city and its hospitable people—they were induced to hold their convention in our midst.

—Newbern Sun: After 20 years of silence, she ticks again—the picturesque clock in the windows at Mr. Samuel H. Eaton's jewelry store. This time piece had been stored away for twenty years, Mr. Eaton resurrected it today and applied a little oil to the still parts of the machinery and by several turns of the key, tick, tock, was heard. This clock is quite an ornamental one. It is overshadowed by a tree, through which wires are run, and a number of the limbs are put in motion when the clock runs and on their limbs are perched beautiful little birds, who flop their wings, as if in the act of flying. The tree and clock is enclosed by a glass case, making a unique time piece.

—Concord Tribune: At the afternoon session of the Cabarrus Superior Court, the evidence against the suspected negro, Will Graham, charged with criminal assault upon Miss Pearl Tucker, was presented to the grand jury and the matter passed upon by that honorable body. The evidence against the negro is sufficient to hold him for a trial although there is a considerable amount of circumstantial evidence in the case. Solicitor Clarkson has left no stone unturned in delving into the mysteries of the case and is using every means at his command to give the negro a fair and impartial trial. The solicitor asked his honor, Judge Justice, to appoint Montgomery & Crowell to assist him in the prosecution, and to name Attorneys L. T. Hartsell and H. S. Williams to defend the negro; and further, asked that the trial be had on Thursday, November 5th.

—Lexington, Oct. 26.—The belt of a cotton gin at Arnold, six miles from Lexington, was cut into a number of pieces by some unknown party last night and as a result the gin is not running today. Saturday the gin was operated and during the past week quite a good deal of cotton has been ginned. Not only was the belt cut in a number of pieces, but one piece about ten feet in length was carried away, making it impossible to patch the belt. It is reported that other damage was done. Last night about 9 o'clock several children who happened to pass along the road near the gin noticed a buggy drive off and it is thought that perhaps the parties who did the damage were in the buggy. There is no clue whatever as to who did the work. As far as can be learned no notices have been posted about the gin and no threats have been heard of. About six months ago in the same locality considerable damage was done in the way of cutting buggies to pieces, slashing harness, cutting barb wire fences and other acts of a similar nature. No arrests were ever made.

Mr. Will Stroud, the well known blacksmith of the firm of Bateman & Stroud, 423 Deadrick Street, Nashville, Tenn., has a good word to say for Andes' Great Prescription. "It seems almost a miracle to know how quickly your medicines cured me. I never knew what it was to be sick a minute in my life up to twelve months ago, when I began to have what the doctors called nervous indigestion. It affected my heart action and caused me to be nervous and not able to work long at a time. I would have shortness of breath, hot flashes and cold sensations would come over me all of a sudden, then my stomach would bloat, especially after eating. I have used just two bottles of Andes' Great Prescription and now I feel as well as ever."

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 28.—A sharp early advance in the cotton market today was followed by partial reactions under realizing with the close steady at a net decline of one point on October but generally 2 to 6 points net higher. Sales were estimated at 25,000 bales.

The market opened steady at the advance of 2 to 5 points and before the upward movement was checked the active months sold six to nine point net higher, all of them making new high records for the session with the exception of December. The advance was encouraged by better cables than expected, talk of an early settlement of Manchester troubles and unfavorable weather reports. For the first few minutes after the opening there was some hesitation and irregularity owing to the absence of Wall street buying orders but these soon reached the market and started a general demand for both accounts. Realizing was very heavy on the advance in spite of the unfavorable eastern belt forecast and fluctuations during the afternoon were comparatively narrow and irregular, late months being relatively steady. Business was very active at the close with commission houses good buyers. A tropical storm was reported over the Northeast gulf moving northward.

Receipts at the ports today 79.730 bales against 58,982 last week and 51,287 last year. For the week 430,000 bales against 415,369 last week and 343,537 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 20,780 bales against 10,210 last year and at Houston 20,208 bales against 10,161 last year.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 28.—The dry goods market is steadily growing firmer in the cotton goods division. Prices have also been advanced on some lines of men's wear for spring. Carpets for spring will be shown November 9. Cotton yarns are firmer. The spot demand for satin faced silk piece goods is still large. Jobbers are receiving a better return from their road men.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 28.—The downward movement of prices of stocks today was commonly attributed to the efforts of the professional element. Their motive was found in the conviction that stocks were being supplied on riding prices to meet any outside demand that developed. The supposition current in the financial district of the extent of the speculative holders which are awaiting an opportunity for liquidation reach such formidable figures that misgivings arise of the sufficiency of expected new demand to absorb this stock and maintain prices. The response of the market to the quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation was the immediate occasion for this process of reasoning of the professional speculative mind. The earning for the quarter proved larger than the preliminary estimated.

The termination of the political campaign is the favorable factor on which the market has moved for several weeks. With that occasion near at hand it was argued that deferring of profit until the event was hazardous, in view of the indication afforded by the effect of the United States Steel Corporation's showing that influential holders of stocks were inclined to dispose of them on favorable opportunity. The copper industrials gave way more sharply, although the prices of the metal were marked up again at the local metal exchange. Foreign exchange markets were made more cheerful by peaceable views expressed by the Emperor of Germany in a reported interview.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales. par value, were $3,318,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 513,500 shares.

Should a Man Economize On His Clothes?

If we had high-priced clothing to sell, we could probably convince you that you couldn't afford to wear cheap clothing.

No man can afford to wear clothes that discount him in the eyes of everybody he meets. But you can't walk a block in this city without passing many men who are wearing clothing that sets badly on them; is curled at the edges, and drawn out of shape—because they paid a few dollars less for it than they would have need to pay for perfect-fitting clothes.

And the perfect-fitting clothing would not only make them look better and feel better every minute they had it on, BUT WOULD WEAR HALF AS LONG AGAIN, at least, and so be cheaper in the end than the clothes that never gave any satisfaction, first or last.

But, while SOLKY CLOTHING is the BEST that is known, ready-made, in style, workmanship and finish, it costs just about the same as the less worthy kinds.

A BUSY TIME FOR MR. BRYAN

A Strenuous Day Spent by Him in Canvassing New York State.

THE REPUBLICAN CANVASS

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 28.—"I've had a delightful and busy time during my stay in New York," said Mr. Bryan before leaving here today, "and I have learned something. I have learned that we waste a great deal of time in sleep. Always before, I had supposed that a man must have eight hours sleep a night, but I find that you New Yorkers thrive on five hours."

"Do you expect to carry New York State?" he was asked.

"I certainly do, and I expect to carry the entire Middle West as well as some of the Eastern States. We will have enough and more. Nebraska is sure and so, I think, is Ohio."

Hastings, N. Y., Oct. 28.—In his speech here today to an audience of railroad men Mr. Bryan charged that the Republicans had abandoned argument "and now attempt to win this election by the use of a campaign fund the source of which they refuse to disclose. They are trying to win the election by coercion, threatening employes with the loss of employment if the Democrats win and threatening the business world with a panic if the Republicans are not successful."

It was, Mr. Bryan said, the worst time to use the threat of a panic, "for when the Republicans talk about a possible panic next year the people cannot forget the actual panic of last year."

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 28.—"The President seems to find it necessary to endorse his appointee over and over again," said Bryan here today. "If an endorsement is good once it should be enough." Attention was also called by Bryan to the President's action in the campaign, and he got a mighty outburst of applause when he said that in Europe a King could give the crown to his son, "but in America the President cannot give the executive chair to any one. That belongs to the people."

Peekskill, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Charging the Republicans with resorting to deception in the arguments they are now making, Mr. Bryan addressed a big crowd of warking men from the rear of his car here today. "I trust the tide which is running in the direction of our party," he continued, "will continue to swell until election day and until we hear that New York is in the Democratic column."

Rensselaer, N. Y., Oct. 28.—A large crowd, including many railroad men stood in a heavy rain storm today to hear Bryan speak. As he mounted the platform a workman held up a dinner pail and shouted: "Hello Bill, here's an empty dinner pail." The crowd cheered. Bryan discussed the labor question. "Styles seem to have changed," he remarked. "They are not wearing the dinner pail so full as they used to and they seem to be so much smaller than they were, and yet the same party that deceived the laboring men with the full dinner pail eight years ago is trying to deceive them now with the threat of a panic. Unfortunately for the Republican party, the people are so absorbed in the thought of the panic they now have that they haven't time to be scared about another panic."

"The Republican party," he went on, "has no plan that looks to the relief of the people on any question and they cannot well present a plan for relief because having been in power for twelve years they are responsible for the very things from which the people need relief."

KILLED BY POISON

Two Servants in a Minister's Family Die of Poison.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Oklahoma City, Oct. 28.—Death by poison of two servants in the home of the Rev. Carter Helm Jones, pastor of the aBptist church here has started an investigation to determine whether poison was meant for the minister by persons in Lynchburg, Va., who objected to his marriage to a woman of the Methodist church. Dr. Jones says he does not believe the poison was meant for him.

Edward and Laura Davis, servants in the household of Dr. Jones, were found dead. Beside them was a bottle of whiskey and a bottle of blackberry brandy. The brandy had been brought bv Dr. Jones' family from Virginia.

Dr. Jones was pastor of the Broadway Baptist church in Louisville for years. About a year ago he went to Lynchburg to take one of the largest churches there. He married a prominent Methodist woman and this marriage outside of his denomination caused bitter complaint.

TAFT AND HUGHES SPOKE TO CROWDS

MANY SPEECHES MADE

Both Candidates Received Prolonged Applause—Senator Lodge and Other Prominent Republicans Are Greeted.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Madison Square Garden, N. Y., Oct. 28.—William H. Taft and Charles E. Hughes were the attractions at a great Republican mass meeting at Madison Square Garden tonight.

The meeting was remarkable in more ways than one. At every mention of the name of Governor Hughes the hall resounded with cheering and when he entered the hall the crowd, which filled every available space in the auditorium, cheered him for 16 minutes without stopping. Governor Hughes made a characteristic address, which was received enthusiastically.

But it remained for Mr. Taft to inspire the greatest demonstration. For 19 minutes Madison Square Garden trembled from the stamping of feet and the roar of voice.

Mr. Taft tried to quell the racket but was powerless to do so. When the noise ceased Mr. Taft began his address. His voice was hoarse, but the crowd was satisfied merely to look at him and his every word was cheered.

There were a number of other speakers before Judge Taft and Governor Hughes arrived, but the throng was impatient to hear the Presidential candidate and State nominee.

The Republican campaign in New York City reached its climax tonight when William H. Taft, Presidential candidate and Charles E. Hughes, candidate for Governor, spoke from the same platform at Madison Square Garden to an audience that filled the enormous amphitheatre. Their appearance at Madison Square Garden came at the end of the day in which political view-point was most remarkable. During the day Mr. Taft spoke at fourteen meetings and Governor Hughes at fifteen. Then, tonight, while the Madison Square meeting was in progress a giant parade was wending its way in a down-pour of rain down through the heart of the city.

At 7 o'clock a heavy rain set in, but this did not interfere with the crowd besieging the entrances to the Garden. By 8 o'clock the police had to bar all except reserved seat ticket holders. The galleries were girdled with American flags, was hidden by a mammoth American flag and over the main entrance hung a big blue Yale banner with portraits of Taft and Sherman on it and in the center, "Yale '78."

A band of 100 pieces kept the crowd from becoming impatient during the hour or more that elaused before General Horace E. Porter, who presided, called the meeting to order. Stirring airs were played amid the greatest enthusiasm.

When Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Senator Chauncey M. Depew, Senator William Alden Smith and State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff appeared on the platform they were given an enthusiastic reception.

General Porter began by saying that he had never attended such an enthusiastic meeting. Then he attacked W. J. Bryan, saying the he was suffering from political and financial delusions. "We like to see a practical man these days," he said, "and Mr. Bryan is the personification of unpracticability."

GOVERNOR OBTAINS MORE EVIDENCE

Is Confident That The Tennessee Night Riders Will be Convicted.

ANOTHER ONE CONFESSES

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Camp Nemo, Reelfoot Lake, Tenn., Oct. 28.—Within one week from the time the soldiers of Tennessee under personal direction of Governor M. R. Patterson spread their tents in the heart of the night rider region, evidence of the most damaging nature against the murderers of Captain Quentin Rankin has been unearthed.

Frank Ferriner last night confessed and implicated ten or twelve men now in custody. He gave names and went into details. Farriner is carefully guarded in an isolated tent. Ferriner's confession came after a long gruelling examination in Colonel Tatom's tent. Governor Patterson in person questioned the witness. The Governor expressed himself tonight as highly pleased with what has been brought out. "We are getting some mighty strong evidence," he said, "and I am confident we will discover the members of this marauding band and convict them."

Besides Ferriner two other men are guarded in separate tents tonight. They are Tom Johnson, of Horn Beak, alleged to be one of the night rider captains; his cousin, Garrett Johnson, of Sprout Springs, also alleged to be a captain of the band; Will Watson, captured yesterday, who is under indictment in Lake county for whipping old man Winn, and Fred Pinion and a man named Thorn. A score of additional prisoners were brought in today. Most of them are wanted as witnesses, but three who were apprehended are regarded as important prisoners. They are Fred Pinion, J. A. Johnson and R. L. Knight. On the arrival at Camp tonight of Major R. E. Martin and his detachment bringing eight or ten prisoners, Governor Patterson conducted a court of inquiry in his tent, examining singlerly those brought in. The total number of arrests, including today's round up, is eighty-five and of this number it is alleged that half belong to the night riders' band.

Sheriff Dawson and a squad of men left today for Tiptonville to take Ted Burton from the jail to Union City. Rumors say that an effort may be made to lynch Burton because he confessed, but Sheriff Hains thinks no such effort is likely.

Major J. Bright Horton, leading a detachment of soldiers, returned to Camp today having in charge James M. Brice, editor of Troy News-Banner. Mr. Brice was immediately ordered released as it was clear that a mistake had been made. Brice is not only a prominent and law abiding citizen of his town, but one of the best known newspaper men in western Tennessee.

Colonel Tatom said the arrest of Brice was the result of a misunderstanding of orders as much his fault as anybody's. Editor Brice returned to his home at Troy tonight.

WATSON ATTACKS REPUBLICANS

Also Assails Bryan and Says He is Dangerous Candidate.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Douglasville, Ga., Oct. 28.—Thomas E. Watson, People's party candidate for President, in a speech here tonight attacked what he termed the "stand pat Republican Senate," which he said would block remedial legislation should the Republican party be victorious. He also assailed Mr. Bryan, calling him "An extremely dangerous candidate for the South because of his record on the negro question." He said that Mr. Bryan, an Illinois man by birth, grew up in the honest belief that the South was wrong on the negro question and with the belief that there would be no objection to social equality.

A DASTARDLY CRIME.

Mrs. W. E. Torrence Shot and Killed by Negro Boy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., Oct. 28.—While sitting in a rear room of her home at Pooler, ten miles from Savannah today, Mrs. W. E. Torrence, wife of an engineer, was fired upon and instantly killed by Solomon Riley, a negro boy. The boy was arrested. This afternoon a party of 30 men bent upon lynching the negro left Savannah by train for Pooler. Arriving there, however, the crowd found that the negro had been brought to Savannah by Deputy Sheriff R. W. Westcott. The officer had concealed the boy beneath a lap robe and driven into the city in a buggy. Riley is in jail here.

GRAVES OF CONFEDERATES

Progress Made in Marking Those of Men Who Died in Federal Prisons—Report Made to President by Oates.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 28.—General W. C. Oats, of Alabama, who is superintending the marking of the graves of Confederate soldier who died in Federal prisons, called on the President today and told him of the progress of the work. He said that of the $200,000 appropriated by Congress $47,000 had been expended.

One matter brought to the President's attention was that the law provided for simple white marble headstones like those in Arlington National cemetery and in this respect in some cases it was impossible to carry out the law. One instance was at Indianapolis where 1,620 Confederate prisoners were buried and afterward taken up by a railroad company which wanted to use the ground. This company had been given permission to remove the bodies and in re-enterring them all had been placed in an acre of ground in Greenlawn cemetery, in many cases more than one in a grave. There was nothing to indicate who were the soldiers in the graves, General Oates told President, so they cannot be marked individually. It is General Oates' idea to mark these graves with a shaft of white marble bearing the names of all the soldiers buried there, but this cannot be done without changing the law.

Mr. Oates said there were many similar instances throughout the country, but the work was progressing favorably. At Columbus, O., where 2,260 Confederates died at Camp Chase, the graves have all been carefully marked. In all, 25,000 Confederate soldiers died in Federal prisons and were buried at different points from Boston to Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Ecellent Health Advice.

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 297 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, billiousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c.
